

SK Razvi is the founder of earbitration.net© and trucard©; Syed Kamran Razvi is the domain and work flow expert in Islamic Finance mechanism as well. Educated and trained in Law, he has practiced law since 1992, in different courts and different jurisdiction. More recently, he has focused on business frameworks on ethical finance, designed certificate course on Islamic Finance with practical applications. He has presented many papers in both national and international conferences in US, Malaysia, Indonesia, UAE etc. He filed number of Public Interest litigations in High Court and Supreme Court of India. He was also part of deliberation committee on status of Muslim Personal Law and women in year 2015.

He was part of IVLP (judicial program) by US state department in 2008. He was election observer in Sri Lanka Presidential elections in year 2000. His pet project is Clean India Clean Amroha since 2011 and micro credit. He lives in Delhi with his family. His family background also includes eminent theologians, broadcasters and Academicians. His great grandfather Syed Hasan Amorhi was one of the prominent disciples of Muhammad Qasim al-Nanawtawi, Founder of Darul Uloom Deoband and Deoband School of Islam.